School-owned devices are deployed throughout the district in classrooms, offices, and homes.

Remote manageability features on the built-for-business Intel vPro® platform ensure that IT leaders never lose contact with students and their devices.

AI-powered antivirus protection from SentinelOne detects, prevents, and can automatically roll back from malware attacks.

Students and teachers in remote/hybrid learning environments are at heightened risk for phishing scams and other unsafe online behavior.

SOURCES
1. Micah Castello, “Cyberattacks Increasingly Threaten Schools — Here’s What to Know,” edtechmagazine.com, June 2020

Learn more about how Lenovo is supporting the future of K-12 learning. Visit www.lenovo.com/K-12-Education.